WHY SHOULD YOU ADVERTISE?

The Thomas Worthington High School Theatre Repertory is entering our 28th Season and is excited to invite you along! We are seeking advertisements from local businesses and individuals who wish to support local arts while strategically marketing to our audiences through our established theatrical performances. We offer access to a distinct audience: educated, appreciative of art, and supportive of local businesses.

Our goal has been not only to entertain and educate our community, but also to provide a creative outlet for our TWHS students as well. We present the best of today's musicals and plays, showcasing our students in 9th through 12th grade. We have a substantial social media presence on Facebook and Twitter and with 8-12 shows a year, we present the largest show season of any high school in the state of Ohio.

Advertising in our season Playbill lets your customers know you are a supporter of the local arts and the arts in our schools. By becoming an advertiser now, your ad will appear in playbills for each of our eight productions this season: Competition Piece, The Survivor, Witness for the Prosecution, A Night of One Acts, Lion the Witch and the Wardrobe, Oliver!, and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

The TWHS Repertory Theatre programs is a fully self supported extra curricular activity. With your contribution through advertising in our Playbill, you will be supporting our students continued growth in the arts through workshops, conferences, and competitions as well as the ability to create fully produced musicals and dramas for the enjoyment of the Worthington community

Theatre skills can and will be used throughout students' lives, whether they take to the stage or not. Someday a student may become a successful star of stage and screen, but more likely, the classroom is filled with young people who will become active, informed, and empathetic audience members. They may use their improvisation skills to handle problems on a job or provide positive service to a challenging customer. They may make presentations to a board of directors or need to give an announcement in front of a large group of people. OR, someday, they may read and tell tales to their own children, using animated voices and sound effects to enliven the stories.

We could not do what we do without your help and we hope that you will consider advertising with the TWHS Repertory Theatre this year. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Jillian Warburton at cardinaltheatretix@gmail.com. We hope to see you this year!

Sincerely,
The Cardinal Theatre Staff and Students
